

Privacy Statement

IMPORTANT: Please do not submit your personal information and complete this survey if you do not consent to the treatment of your personal information in the ways described in this notice.

By providing your personally identifiable information ('PII') when completing this survey, you are providing PII to Flight Centre, which will be recorded and used by Flight Centre for the purposes set out below.

This Privacy Statement must be read in conjunction with Flight Centre's Internal Global Privacy Policy, available on the FCTG Policy Portal.

Once you submit your survey, Flight Centre may use your personal information for the following purposes:

- to process your survey responses;
- to communicate with you (based on your responses) which includes providing additional supporting information, guidance and resources, either by phone or email; and
- as otherwise specified or permitted in our Internal Global Privacy Policy.

You acknowledge and agree that, in carrying out the above activities, your information may be controlled and processed by Flight Centre and may be transferred to jurisdictions that may or may not have data protection laws, or which have data protection laws that do not provide equivalent protection to those of your local country or region. In particular, you acknowledge and agree that PII will be provided to HubSpot in addition to Flight Centre, and may be transferred by HubSpot to any of their cloud-based storage locations hosted on Amazon Web Services infrastructure. Please do not submit your PII or complete this survey if you do not want your information to be dealt with in the ways described in this notice.

Your submission of personal information and completion of this survey is completely voluntary.

By submitting your personal information and completing the survey, you acknowledge and agree that you have read and understand this Privacy Statement and the Internal Global Privacy Policy, and consent to the collection, handling, use and disclosure of your information as set out in this Privacy Statement and the Internal Global Privacy Notice.
